16 Calculation of rate of return on capital

\[ C = A - L \]
\[ = 500,000 - (150,000 + 100,000) \]
\[ = 250,000 \]

\[ \text{ROROC} = \frac{\text{NP}}{\text{C}} \times 100 \]
\[ = \frac{50,000}{250,000} \times 100 \]
\[ = 20\% \]

18 Benefits that a farmer may get by transporting her produce to the market by road include:
(a) Relatively flexible
(b) Relatively cheap
(c) Relatively available
(d) Relatively fast
(e) Variety of means of road transport

(Any 4 x 1 mark = 4 marks)

19 Causes of the declining supply of sukuma wiki include:
(a) fall in the price of kales (sukuma wiki) may have discouraged producers (farmers) as they opt to produce other goods
(b) there may have been an outbreak of diseases affecting the sukuma wiki
(c) there may have been prolonged drought which affects the sukuma wiki
(d) there may have been increased cost of farm inputs like fertilizer and seeds
(e) the farmers could be using inappropriate technology to produce the sukuma wiki
(f) this may just be the ploughing time and many farmers have not yet planted sukuma wiki

(Any 4 x 1 = 4 marks)

20 Ways in which households may contribute to national income of a country include:
(a) consumption of goods
(b) payment of taxes

558
(c) provision of factors of production
(d) provision of savings for investment

21 Circumstances in which a trader may use oral communication include:
(a) when there is need to negotiate a deal

24 Benefits that accrue to a trader who advertises products in a newspaper include:
(a) wide coverage - message can reach a lot of people
(b) evidence of the message exists
(c) graphical details can be included
(d) a trader has a chance to compete with other traders
(e) a trader has a chance of increasing sales.

25 Calculation of the increase in consumer price index

Base year 2006 = 100%

\text{Increase} = \left( \frac{1600}{1200} \times 100 \right) = 133\%

Increase (133 - 100) = 33%

33.2 Business Studies Paper 2 (565/2)

1. (a) Explaining the types of inflation
   (i) Demand-Pull inflation
   Refers to a progressive increase in the general level of prices brought about by an expansion in demand. There is too much money chasing very few goods.
   (ii) Cost-Push inflation
   A progressive increase in the general price level brought about by a general increase in the cost of production.
   (iii) Imported inflation
   Refers to an increase in domestic prices resulting from importation of primary goods and inputs at higher prices.
   (iv) Structural inflation
   Refers to a persistent rise in prices resulting from failure of the economy to meet the general increase in demand.

   (b) Factors that may hinder the development of a country include:
   (i) Low demand for goods and services which discourages production activities hence interfering with development.
   (ii) Inadequate capital which leads to low levels of development
   (iii) Negative sociocultural practices which may hinder production and consumption of certain goods and services.
   (iv) Inadequate foreign exchange which limits access to imports hence affecting production and consumption.
   (v) Limited entrepreneurial abilities resulting into inefficiency in production.
   (vi) Poor management of resources arising from inadequate skills, corruption and poor governance which limit the extent of growth and development.
   (vii) Poor nutrition and disease prevalence which renders some of the people unproductive as well as channelling much of the income into provision of health care instead of investment.
   (viii) Use of inappropriate technology which compromises the quantity and quality of goods and services produced.

   (4 x 2 = 8 marks)

2. (a) Circumstances under which containerization may be used to transport goods include:
   (i) Where bulky goods are imported. Bulky goods are usually transported by sea where containers are used.
   (ii) Where specialized equipment are available for handling containers.
   (iii) Where container terminals are available - containerization require container terminals which are specially built to handle them.
   (iv) Where specialized means of transport like railways are available.
   (v) Where security of goods need to be guaranteed. Goods of very high value and those that are risky require high level of security which is guaranteed by containers.
   (vi) Where skilled personnel are available. The handling of containers require specially trained workers to handle and manage them.

   (Any 5 x 2 = 10 marks)
(b) (I) Procedure for making an insurance claim
(i) Notifying the insurer of the loss suffered.
(ii) Filling a claim form from the insurer.
(iii) Carrying out investigation to determine or ascertain the cause of loss.
(iv) Insurance company making a report.
(v) Determination and payment of the claim.

(II) Determination of compensation
Compensation = \[\frac{\text{Sum assured \times Actual loss}}{\text{value of property}}\]

= \[\frac{900,000 \times 500,000}{1,200,000}\]

= Ksh 375,000

(5 x 1 = 5 marks)

3. (a) Factors to consider when choosing a method of promoting a product include:
(i) Cost of the method. The organization should choose a promotion method that is affordable.
(ii) Geographical area of coverage. The organization should choose a method that will reach the customers in their various locations.
(iii) Target group. The organization must choose a method that appeals to the relevant target group.
(iv) Speed of the medium or method in relation to urgency of the message. The organization should choose a method that will reach the customers within the desired time frame.
(v) Nature of the product. Different methods may be chosen depending on the nature of the product e.g. technical products may require demonstrations best achieved through personal selling.
(vi) Nature of the message. The organization should choose a method that will best present the various aspects of the message.

(Any 5 x 2 = 10 marks)

(b) Features of economic resources include:
(i) Scarcity. They are found in small quantities compared to the many uses into which they have to be put and hence not sufficient to satisfy all human wants.
(ii) Monetary Value. They have a price attached to them which have to be paid for their use.
(iii) Uneven distribution. They are not distributed uniformly in society, hence some people, regions or countries have more of the resources than others.
(iv) Combinability. They can be used in different proportions to produce goods and services.
(v) Usefulness. They are used to satisfy human wants (have utility).
(vi) Transferability. They may be transferred from one person to another in terms of ownership.

(Any 5 x 2 = 10 marks)
4. (a) Benefits that may accrue to an organization that adopts an open office plan include:

(i) Easy supervision. It is easy to monitor employee’s performance since they are in the same room.
(ii) Economy of space. More floor space is available since space has not been lost through partitions.
(iii) Minimal cost. It is cheap to construct and maintain.
(iv) Sharing of resources. It makes possible for joint use of office facilities.
(v) Easy communication. Communication between workers and departments is made easier and faster since there are no physical barriers between them.
(vi) Easy reorganization. It is easy to re-arrange the office when need arises.
(vii) Enhanced teamwork. Employees work as a team and learn to be together.

(Any 5 x 2 = 10 marks)

(b) Circumstances under which a partnership may be dissolved include:

(i) Expiry of time or accomplishment of purpose. Where the partnership was formed for a definite time or a particular purpose, the expiry of time and accomplishment of purpose terminates the partnership.
(ii) Mutual agreement among partners - where the partners agree among themselves to terminate the partnership.
(iii) Bankruptcy of a general partner - where a court declares the value of one of the general partner’s property insufficient to settle his or her debts.
(iv) Change in law that makes the operations of the partnership illegal.
(v) Permanent inability of a general partner to perform or fulfil his part of the partnership agreement either as a result of disease, insanity or death.
(vi) Internal dissension among partners - where partners disagree irreconciliably, then the partnership may be terminated.
(vii) Persistent losses in operation - where the business has continued to operate at a loss, then it is terminated.
(viii) Fraud, mistake or misrepresentation - where the partnership was formed under fraud, mistake or misrepresentation, a Court of Law may order its dissolution.

(Any 5 x 2 = 10 marks)

5. (a) Factors that may influence the choice of a channel for distributing flowers include:

(i) Nature of the flowers - flowers are perishable and therefore need a short channel in order to be distributed quickly.
(ii) Cost. The cost of different channels of distribution should be considered and the cheapest channel used.
(iii) Nature of the market. If consumers are widespread, then agents may be necessary to reach them.
(iv) Tastes and preferences of consumers. Consumers may have specific preferences which might require the personal attention of the producer hence use of a shorter channel.
6. (a) Causes of unfavourable balance of payment for most developing countries include:

(i) Reliance on primary products for export. Most developing countries mainly export primary agricultural products which fetch low prices in the international market.

(ii) Heavy importation of finished goods. Most developing countries import finished manufactured goods whose value are very high hence spend more on them.

(iii) Low levels of technology. Most developing countries rely on low levels of technology in production which compromises the quality of their exports and also lowering their value.

(iv) Too much reliance on foreign borrowing. Most developing countries finance their development projects through heavy borrowing yet such loans are repaid with heavy interests.

(v) Susceptibility to natural calamities. Many developing countries are easily affected by natural disasters like drought which adversely affect their production.

(vi) Preference towards foreign goods. Most consumers in developing countries prefer goods manufactured in foreign countries in the belief that they are of better quality.

(vii) Unfavourable world economic order. The developing countries have very little say in international trade forums and cannot influence the world economic order in their favour.

(Any 5 x 2 = 10 marks)

(b) Reasons for maintaining books of original entry include:

(i) To reduce details to be recorded in the ledger accounts.

(ii) Act as back-up data from which other information may be extracted if need arise.

(iii) Contain information which act as reference such as units, trade discounts and terms of sale.

(iv) The general journal is used to correct errors made when recording transactions.

(v) The three-column cash book is used as a book of original entry as well as a ledger.
